Deep Sidhu death: Police say truck driver identified, arrest soon

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
CHANDIGARH, FEBRUARY 16

A BOARD of three doctors Wednesday conducted a post-mortem examination of Punjab actor and activist Deep Sidhu's body at Sonipat's civil hospital. The body was handed over to his family members afterwards.

Sidhu, who shot into limelight following the Red Fort violence during farmers' rally on Republic Day last year, was driving a Mahindra Scorpio that crashed into the back of a truck on Kundli-Manesar-Palwal (KMP) highway. His friend Reena Rai, who was accompanying him from Delhi to Punjab at the time, survived.

Rahul Sharma, Superintendent of Police (Sonipat), said, "Our team that inspected the scene of the accident found a partially consumed liquor bottle from the car. It is not yet known if Sidhu had consumed it. The viscera has been sent for chemical examination. His family has left for Ludhiana, where they will perform the last rites. They also met his co-passenger (Rai) at the hospital."

"The driver has been identified and we are in the process of arresting him. We have registered a case on charges of rash and negligent driving causing death," Sharma said. Police said the truck was moving at the time of the incident and there were 25-30 metre long skid marks at the spot, apparently from Sidhu's car. Police teams are reconstructing the scene and will submit a report to the district police chief.

Police have recovered CCTV footage from a toll plaza on KMP, which shows Sidhu's vehicle at 7:15 pm. "There were reports that streetlights on the highway were non-functional at the time. We are checking with Haryana State Industrial and Infrastructure Development Corporation (HSIDC) to verify if there was a power cut in the area or some other reason," Sharma said.

Asked if there was a possibility of foul play, he said, "Preliminary investigations so far indicate it was a case of an accident. There does not appear any foul play, as of now. Even his family has not raised any apprehensions of foul play. The driver of the truck, once arrested, will be thoroughly questioned."

Safety fears: 40 families in society asked to vacate

Gurgaon: A week after a portion of the sixth floor collapsed at Chintels Paradiso in Gurgaon's sector 109, prompting the government to order structural audits of several societies, the district administration Wednesday directed residents of NBCC Green View group housing society, constructed by state-owned construction firm NBCC in sector 37-D, to vacate houses by March 1 on the grounds of safety.

A structural audit by IIT Delhi in October 2021 had declared the buildings unsafe and asked residents to vacate within 2 months. The deputy commissioner held a joint meeting with residents and officials of National Building Construction Corporation (NBCC) Wednesday.

Gurgaon DC Nishant Kumar Yadav, chairman of District Disaster Management Authority, said that considering safety of people, 40 families had been asked to vacate by March 1. "NBCC will bear shifting cost, in case families do not wish to stay in alternate accommodation suggested by NBCC, they can rent a flat as per convenience and rent cost will be borne by NBCC," he said. "For residents who want to take refund for flats, district administration will order NBCC to refund in a month with lawful interest."

Residents said they wanted a legally binding assurance. G Mohanty, president, association of apartment owners, NBCC Green View Group Housing, said, "We're apprehensive NBCC won't easily refund money. We appeal to administration to obtain a legally binding assurance." ENS

Court summons five AAP leaders

New Delhi: A Delhi court Wednesday summoned AAP leaders Satyendar Jain, Atishi, Raghu Chadha, Durgesh Pathak and Saurabh Bhardwaj in a defamation complaint filed by a BJP councillor, who has alleged that they made false allegations against the party's leaders ahead of MCD elections in the city.

Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate Ravindra Kumar Pandey summoned the five on March 14. The complainant, Chhail Bihari Goswami, is a councillor from North MCD's Naraina ward. He has alleged that Pathak, in criminal conspiracy with the others, held a press conference in which he made defamatory statements claiming that there was corruption of Rs 1400 crore in the MCD.

It was alleged that others had made defamatory statements on different dates and levelled "false allegations so that the image of the complainant and image of the other party leaders may be tarnished and with sole motive to achieve wrongful gain". "Delhi government... to gain political mileage in upcoming municipal corporation elections, is not releasing consolidated due funds of Rs 13,000 crores to the 3 corporations..." he has alleged. ENS
